It is requested that all of the lodge representatives who have been designated to take part in the memorial exercises, as lodge representatives, meet with Past Grand Harry L. Andresen, in the diningroom, Odd Follows' Hall, Sunday evening, at 7:30 p. m., for final instructions. One of the interesting features of the past week was the baseball game between the K. of C. nine and the Catholic University, the latter winning by a score of 12 to 4. Several hundred children from the various local orphan asylums were present and rooted hard for their favorites. Manager Colliflower is receiving congratulations for his able handling of the affair. The Washington Chapter, under whose auspices the game was arranged, reports a financial success, and the proceeds will be turned over to St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum. As many of the subordinate lodges will miss the regular attendance of Grand Chaplain H. S. Petty, at their weekly sessions, and lest they should think that illness was the cause, it is announced that he has gone to Fort Royal for his usual summer outing, but hopes to return early in July for a few days to participated in the installation of the of-cers-elect of the several lodges.
